CALL FOR PAPERS

The Delhi Law Review (DLR) [ISSN 097-4936] is the flagship journal of the Faculty of Law, University of Delhi and is one of the oldest journals in the country having been published since 1972.

The DLR is an annual, double-blind peer reviewed journal. DLR is one of the UGC recognised journals [UGC-Journal list, Law, Social Science, Journal No.41950].

The DLR invites scholarly, original, unpublished articles, case comments/notes and book reviews for its upcoming issue Vol. 35 of 2018-2019 from academicians, judges, legal professionals and judicial officers from India and abroad on contemporary cutting-edge legal issues in the following categories:

A. Articles (8000-10000 words, including footnotes)
B. Case Notes and Legislative Comments (4000-6000 words, including footnotes)
C. Book Reviews (1500-3000 words, including footnotes)

DLR does not accept contributions from students as the Faculty of Law publishes a separate DLR (Student Edition) for students. However, high quality scholarly contributions from doctoral research scholars may be considered for publication in DLR.

The next issue of DLR is expected to be published in Aug-Sept 2019.

General Instructions
