IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMS

All students are advised to read Ordinance II, Appendix II to Ordinance V(2) of Delhi University as approved by the Academic Council and Executive Council of the University in its meetings held on 20-23 June, 2017 and 3 July and 14-15 July, 2017 regarding holding of Supplementary Exams in LL.B. given below:

A supplementary examination for students of LL.B V and VI Terms would be held at the end of the VI Term examinations to give one more opportunity to such students who could not clear any one or more papers of V and VI terms. In case a student of V and VI Term had not cleared any paper of papers of I, II, III and IV Terms he/she would clear the same by taking the respective examinations at the regular examination held at the end of each Term:

Provided that such students of V and VI Terms who could not clear any paper or papers of the V and VI Terms even after taking the supplementary examination, he/she would clear the same at the regular examinations of V and VI Terms held at the end of each Term.

All the thirty papers, must be passed for getting the LL.B degree. As per guidelines of the UGC, a student may be allowed two years period beyond the normal period to clear the backlog to be qualified for the degree. In addition a further extension of one (1) year can be granted under exceptional circumstances to be spelt out clearly by the relevant statutory body of the University. More so, during the extended period the student shall be considered as a private/external candidate and shall not be eligible for ranking.

In terms of this Ordinance, the Supplementary Exam is limited for third year students for clearing any leftover papers of Only V and VI semesters. If any paper of 1st and 2nd year is not cleared by them in regular course or if any paper of V and VI term is not cleared by them even in the supplementary exam, they will be entitled to take those exams only in the regular exam held for the relevant semester.
