LL.M. Course

1. The eligibility criteria for admission to LL.M. (One-Year/Two-Year/Three-Year) Degree course shall be as follows:-

- (i) For General category and Other Backward Classes (OBC) candidates, a three-year/five-year LL.B. Degree from the University of Delhi or any other Indian or Foreign University recognized as equivalent by the University of Delhi with at least 55% marks or an equivalent grade point in the aggregate for One-Year LL.M. Course and 50% marks or an equivalent grade point in the aggregate for Two-Year/Three-Year Course LL.M..

The OBC candidates shall be given a relaxation in the minimum eligibility in the qualifying examination and in the minimum eligibility to take the entrance test to the extent of 10% of the minimum eligibility marks prescribed for the general category candidate. For example, if the minimum eligibility for admission to a course is 50% for the general category candidate, the minimum eligibility for the OBCs would be 45% i.e. (50% less 10% of 50%). It is re-iterated that the OBC candidates who belong to the 'non-creamy layer' and whose castes appear in the Central List of the OBC only shall be eligible to be considered for admission under the OBC category.

- (ii) The candidates belonging to Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe (SC/ST) having a three year/five-year LL.B. Degree from the University of Delhi or any other Indian or Foreign University recognized as equivalent by the University of Delhi with at least 50% marks for one year LL.M. and 45% marks for 2yr/3yr LL.M. or an equivalent grade point in the aggregate in either of them.
- (iii) Relaxation of 5% marks in the minimum eligibility prescribed for general candidates will be allowed to widows/wards of ex-servicemen/serving personnel (CW) category.

(iv) Relaxation of up to 5% marks in the minimum eligibility prescribed for general candidates will be allowed to the candidates belonging to physically handicapped (PH) category on the recommendations of the Medical Board as per the prescribed procedure.

2. The admission to LL.M. course shall be made on the basis of merit in the LL.M. Entrance Test held each year.

Note: (a) The candidates securing the marks prescribed above or appearing in the qualifying Degree examination or awaiting the results of any such examination are eligible to appear in the LL.M. Entrance Test but the admission will depend on their securing the minimum eligibility marks prescribed above.

(b) Rounding of a fraction of marks is not allowed.

3. Each academic year shall be divided into two Terms.
4. The medium of instruction and examination shall be English.
5. The instructions shall be imparted through lectures and class discussions.
6. There shall be one written examination of three hours' duration in each subject at the end of each Term for 2yr/3yr LL.M. One question paper shall be set in each of the subjects prescribed for study and examination. Each paper shall carry 100 marks. The minimum pass marks in each subject shall be 50%.
7. For 1year LL.M. there shall be three Compulsory Papers of three credits or 150 Marks each, out of which two shall be offered in LL.M. Ist term and one shall be offered in IInd term. In addition there are Six Optional/Specialization Papers of two credits or 100 marks each (4 in Ist term and 2 in IInd term, in all 12 credits or 600 marks). In the second semester the candidate shall write a Dissertation for three credits or 150 marks.

8. Duration of LL.M. Course

(i) LL.M. One year (Two Terms) Course

LL.M. VI Term Examination:

Each student shall submit a Dissertation carrying 200 marks as prescribed below.

Applicable to all the three LL.M. Courses

The courses may be offered each year or on alternate years so that the candidates belonging to two years scheme can choose a course when it is available for teaching.

Note: (i) Every student of IV Term of LL.M./M.C.L. Two-Year course and VI Term of LL.M. Three-Year course shall submit a Dissertation carrying 200 marks on a topic approved by the Faculty of Law on or before 31st March of the year in which he/she is a student of that Term.

In special cases, however, the Dean may permit a student to submit the Dissertation after 31st March but not later than 31st August of the year. In case the Dissertation is not submitted by 31st August as aforesaid, the student will have to register as an ex-student in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance relating to ex-students of the University.

As an ex-student, a student may submit the Dissertation as follows:-

1. Last week of October;
2. Last week of January;
3. Last week of April and, with the permission of the Dean, not later than 31st August of the year:

Provided that such of the students who register themselves as ex-students either for submission of Dissertation or for clearing any of the papers may be given the Degree of the academic year in which they clear all the requirements of the LL.M. examination.

Note: (a) In a case where a student fails to obtain the minimum of 50% marks in the Dissertation submitted by him/her, he/she shall be permitted to revise and resubmit the Dissertation on the same or on a fresh topic, to be approved by the Faculty of Law, if he/she so desires.

Further, if the student desires to revise and resubmit the Dissertation on the same topic, extracts from the report of the examiner as to the defects in the Dissertation be made available to the student to enable him/her to revise and re-submit the same.

- (a) The classes for One year/ Two-Year/Three-Year course may be held at any place in the day or evening at the discretion of the Dean.
- (b) The classes in the compulsory Foundation Courses may be held jointly in the evening for all the students.
- (c) Any course other than Foundation Courses may not be offered if facility for teaching is not available.

Note: The above shall be the subjects and courses of study for the examinations with effect from Academic Year from 2014-15 or such date as will be decided by the Faculty of Law in consultation with the University and shall be applicable to those seeking admission in the first year of the LL.M. Course. Thereafter, for the candidates who could not complete their courses under the old scheme, the examination in old course shall continue until the end of their stipulated span period.

10. Attendance Rules

No student shall be deemed to have pursued a regular course of study for the LL.M. Degree examination unless:-

- (i) he/she has attended a minimum of two-thirds of the total number of lectures delivered in the Term in which he/she has been admitted as a regular student; and
- (ii) he/she has submitted term paper for class discussion in each course and the teacher teaching the course is satisfied with the paper and its presentation in the class.

Note: (1) The term 'lectures' will include lectures and discussion classes.

- (2) In determining the exact number of the minimum requisite attendance, i.e. two thirds of lectures and discussion classes, fractions shall be ignored.

No student shall be permitted to appear in the examination of any Term unless he/she has presented term paper in each of the courses of the Term for class discussion and the teacher teaching each course issues a certificate that the paper and its presentation by the student was to his/her satisfaction.

Provided that this requirement shall not be applicable to the compulsory Foundation Course in “Legal and Social Science Research Methods”.

Provided further that the Dean may, in his discretion, exempt a student of the above requirement in exceptional cases of hardship.

11. Promotion Rules for One, Two year and Three year LL.M.

- (i) No student shall be promoted to the next Term, if he/she has been detained in the examination for shortage of attendance and/or non-submission of written paper in all the courses offered by him/her for class discussion and had failed to get certificate from the teacher teaching the course.
- (ii) Subject to sub-rule (i) above, a student of LL.M. First or Third Term of Two-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Second or Fourth Term, respectively irrespective of the number of courses in which he/she has failed to pass or failed to appear in the First or Third Term examinations.

- (iii) Subject to sub-rules (i) and (ii) above, a student of LL.M. Second Term in Two-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Third Term if he/she has passed in at least four papers of First and Second Term examinations taken together.
- (iv) Subject to sub-rule (i) above, a student of LL.M. First, Third or Fifth Term of Three-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Second, Fourth or Sixth Term, respectively irrespective of the number of courses in which he/she has failed to pass or failed to appear in the First, Third or Fifth Term examinations.
- (v) Subject to sub-rules (i) and (iv) above, a student of LL.M. Second Term in Three-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Third Term if he/she has passed in at least three papers of First and Second Term examinations taken together and a student of Fourth Term shall be eligible for promotion to Fifth Term if he/she has passed in at least four papers of First, Second, Third and Fourth Term examinations taken together.
- (vi) Subject to above sub-rules, a student may be permitted to submit Dissertation at the end of Second term in case of one year LL.M. course, or Fourth Term in case of two-year course, or Sixth Term in case of three-year course, on a topic approved by the Faculty of Law irrespective of number of courses which he/she has failed to pass or failed to appear in the examination.

Note :- The students eligible for admission to III/V Term must seek admission not later than two weeks from the date(s) of announcement of the results of LL.M. II/IV Term annual examinations or within one week of commencement of teaching, whichever is later, failing which they will forfeit their right to be admitted to III/V Term.

12. Re-admission Rules

- (i) There shall be no re-admission in the LL.M. First Term under any circumstances including detention of a student for shortage of attendance in that Term and/or non submission of written paper in all the courses offered by him/her for class discussion and failure to get certificate from the teacher teaching the course.
- (ii) A student who has been detained for shortage of attendance or otherwise in Second, Third, Fourth or Fifth Term shall be eligible for re-admission in the Term in which he/she had been detained provided (a) he/she seeks re-admission within the date prescribed by the Dean, Faculty of Law which will not be later than one week from commencement of teaching in that Term; (b) his/her conduct has been satisfactory; and (c) he/she shows sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Dean, Faculty of Law for his/her discontinuance of studies or for not having put in the requisite percentage of attendance and/or non-submission of written paper in all the courses offered by him/her for class discussion and failure to get certificate from the teacher teaching the course.

- (iii) An applicant who has failed in examination or failed to appear at the examination and who is otherwise eligible to appear at the examination as an ex-student, shall not be admitted as a regular student. In exceptional cases, however, where such an applicant is a foreigner, studying under the Cultural Scholarship Scheme of the Government of India, etc., re-admission may be allowed.
- (iv) In respect of an applicant seeking re-admission, his previous record shall be carefully scrutinized.

13. Pass percentage

In order to be eligible for LL.M. Degree, a student must have passed (i.e. secured 50% marks) in each of the courses offered by him/her and in addition he/she must have secured at least 50% marks in the Dissertation.

14. Span Period

Subject to the provisions contained in the Ordinance relating to ex-students as in force from time to time, a student must clear all the courses offered in all the Terms within a span period of ---

- three years from the date of admission to one year LL.M. course,
- within five years from the date of admission to first year of the Two-Year LL.M. course and
- within six years in case of Three year LL.M. course.

No student shall be admitted as a candidate for any LL.M. examination after three or five or six years, as the case may be, from the date of admission to the first year of the course.

LL.M. (Master of Comparative Laws) Degree Examination

(One year LL.M. (Comparative Law) shall be introduced simultaneously with 1 year LL.M. Till such introduction the regulations applicable to 2 year LL.M. would remain applicable and two years LL.M. (Comparative Law) would continue.)

1. The LL.M. (Comparative Law) Degree Course is a One year (two Terms) Course from the commencement of the one year course.
2. This course is meant for a foreign national who has obtained the Degree of Bachelor of Laws or any other Degree from a country other than India with at least 50% marks which entitles him/her to practise in his/her own country.
3. The medium of instruction and examination in this course is English. No one will be admitted to this course unless he is found proficient in English language. It is essential that an applicant for LL.M. (Comparative Law) course should have received his/her earlier education in law or in the Under-graduate Degree course or at the senior secondary level through English medium or had passed any test in English language. Every application for admission to LL.M. (Comparative Law) Degree course must contain a certificate from the appropriate authority to the above effect.

4. Not more than ten students shall be admitted to this course. The students seeking admission to LL.M. (Comparative Law) Degree course will not be required to appear in any entrance test but all applications shall be considered on the basis of individual merits.
5. A candidate seeking admission to LL.M. (Comparative Law) course must apply only through Foreign Students' Advisor of the University along with the following documents:-
