Delhi, the 07th March, 2023

NOTICE

As you know Delhi University has created a history by awarding 910 PhD's in a year, thanks for being part of it. I personally thank all of you for your support to achieve this target. Our aim is to declare the result of PhD thesis evaluation within 3-4 months after the submission of thesis, to achieve this goal, now we are moving to online PhD thesis submission and concerned staff members of all the department and faculty have been trained on online thesis submission. If someone still needs training, please let us know.

For the online thesis submission, students (after the pre-synopsis lecture) are advised to register themselves on the Online Ph.D thesis Submission Portal by using Link:-

http://durslt.du.ac.in/Du_Online_PhD/R1_StudentPortal/Register_New_Student.aspx

After completion of registration by the student Supervisor will get the Link, User ID and Password and supervisor can propose names of the examiners to evaluate the online thesis. After this it will go to DRC/BRS and they can process the file using link http://durslt.du.ac.in/Du_Online_PhD/Login.aspx

It may further be noted that honorarium for the thesis evaluation has been increased to Rs 5000/- ($ 100 for foreign examiner) and for PhD viva honorarium has been increased to Rs 2000/- ($ 500 for foreign examiner).

On submission of PhD thesis students will receive thesis submission certificate and provisional certificate immediately after the declaration of the result, and fee has been included in the PhD thesis submission. So, fee for the PhD submission including thesis submission certificate and provisional certificate is as under:

- (i) Students with fellowship: Rs. 7500/- (including thesis submission certificate and provisional certificate).
- (ii) Students without fellowship: Rs. 5500/- (including thesis submission certificate and provisional certificate).

So, students don't need to submit any application for these certificates, it will be sent to their dashboard. All the stake holders including students can track the progress of their thesis evaluation.

It may further be noted that those cases where examiners list has already been sent to the exam branch all such students can submit their thesis offline after paying new fee structure as mentioned above. So, all the Heads/Directors/Deans are requested not to submit examiners list after March 10, 2023; examiners list should be uploaded in the portal.
